March 26, 2002 LB 1085

work around the Governor. We would say we built the track, we built the train, and that train is rumbling down the track now, and as that guy sang, one of the Guths...I meant one of the...maybe it was one of the Guthries; Ridin' on the City of New Orleans, I'll have gone 500 miles when the day is done. And if you are on the track between my starting point and the 500 miles that I've traveled when I hit, you get run over. Don't touch the third rail because, buddy, this is the Nebraska Legislature doing its business; get on board or get out of the way. But instead, we're not even the little engine that could, chug chugging along saying I know I could. No, we sit still and then we back up. Anybody makes a face at us, we back up, we back up, we back up. That's what we're in the process of doing now. We're finding a way to back up and not do what we ought to do. There are 49 of us. What single individual can whip 49 people, even if 25 of them are cowards. If they just stand there and act like they are going to do something and don't get in the way of the 24 who are going to do something, we will win every time. But we will not do that. The Legislature should be the lions of government instead of the sheep. And as has been said and I've quoted, if only for once the Legislature could behave as a pride of lions, and the expression says, if only for once a flock of sheep could behave as a pride of lions. It's not in sheep to do that. But here is something, it's an axiom. An army of sheep led by a lion will win more battles than an army of lions led by a sheep. So what I'm trying to do...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...is show us that if we behave like sheep, we're going to be treated like sheep. And as somebody said, the only pigeon that gets plucked is the one that's got feathers, the Legislature should not be everybody's pigeon to be plucked, not everybody's sheep to be sheared. We need to roar. There is a song a female sang, I am woman, hear me roar. If the woman can roar with the attitude they have toward women in this society, why cannot the Legislature instead of whimpering. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Wehrbein, you have spoken three times, Senator. Sorry about
